SO ORDERED 3/30/20

Alison J. Nathan, U.S.D.J.

Re: Republic of Turkey v. Christie's Inc. and Michael Steinhardt, 17 Civ. 3086 (AJN)

Your Honor:

We are the attorneys for Plaintiff, Republic of Turkey ("Plaintiff" or "Republic"). We appreciate the Court's prompt ruling on the parties' joint request last week for extensions of the pre-trial submission deadlines and the adjournment sine die of the trial in this case. (Dkt #297). We are writing your Honor again, however, because much has changed since last week when we made the application for an adjournment and even since last Friday when your Honor granted the application, necessitating this further application for an extension of the pretrial deadlines.

On March 22, 2020, Herrick, Feinstein LLP, the attorneys for Plaintiff, in response to Governor Cuomo's March 20, 2020 Executive Order (No. 202.8), closed its office, except to permit access to two staff personnel in the mailroom and IT staff only as needed. Partners, associates and other employees at the firm are no longer permitted access to the office. In addition, the transition from an office environment to everyone working remotely has caused connectivity problems and, in at least three cases, serious technical failures and delays. Our firm's IT staff is simply overwhelmed. Accordingly, our ability to meet the so-ordered filing deadlines has been compromised.

On top of that, because of New York City's recent and alarming developments concerning the spread of COVID-19, two of Plaintiff's attorneys and their families have temporarily relocated outside of the City which adds to the complications.

In light of the foregoing intervening circumstances which are causing and may well continue to cause delays, we respectfully request a further adjournment of the April 3, 2020 deadlines for the submission of pretrial papers until April 24, 2020 (and similar extensions for the few later submissions). Our new proposed schedule is attached. We have considered in making this request that Passover and Easter will occur during this period. Most importantly, we believe that there will be no prejudice to any party because the trial is currently adjourned sine die. And the parties will still be in a position to suggest a new trial date on April 27, 2020, as your Honor directed in last week's order. Defendants' counsel has advised us that Defendants will take no position on Plaintiff's request for a 3-week extension.

The Honorable Alison J. Nathan

Respectfully submitted,
